

Ateneo de Manila University Press's e-books run on Adobe Digital Rights Management (Adobe DRM). You will need to register for an Adobe ID in order to view your e-books. Don't worry, registration is free!

The e-books download limit follows the limit of one Adobe ID: you can register six (6) devices to your Adobe ID that means you can also download your ebooks (infinite times) across six (6) devices. Follow the instructions below to register your Pocketbook Reader under your Adobe ID:

You can download the PocketBook Reader from Google Play Store or iTunes for free. Install the app.

On the menu, click on "Adobe DRM." Make sure that the account type is "Adobe ID."

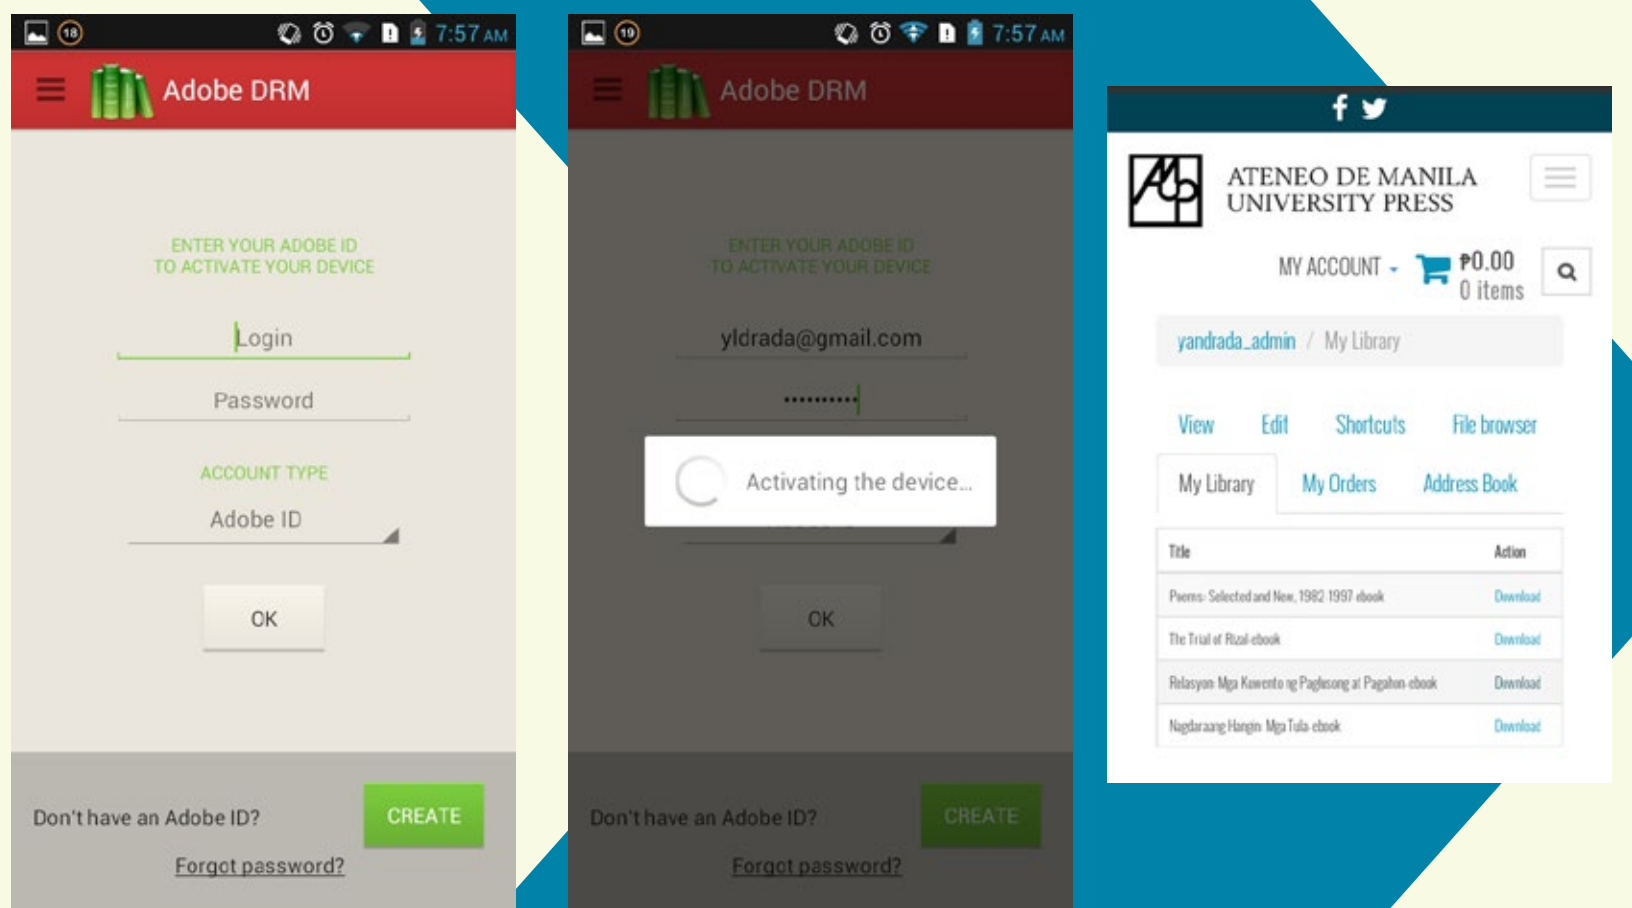

If you don't have an Adobe ID yet, you can click the "Create" button to make one.

1

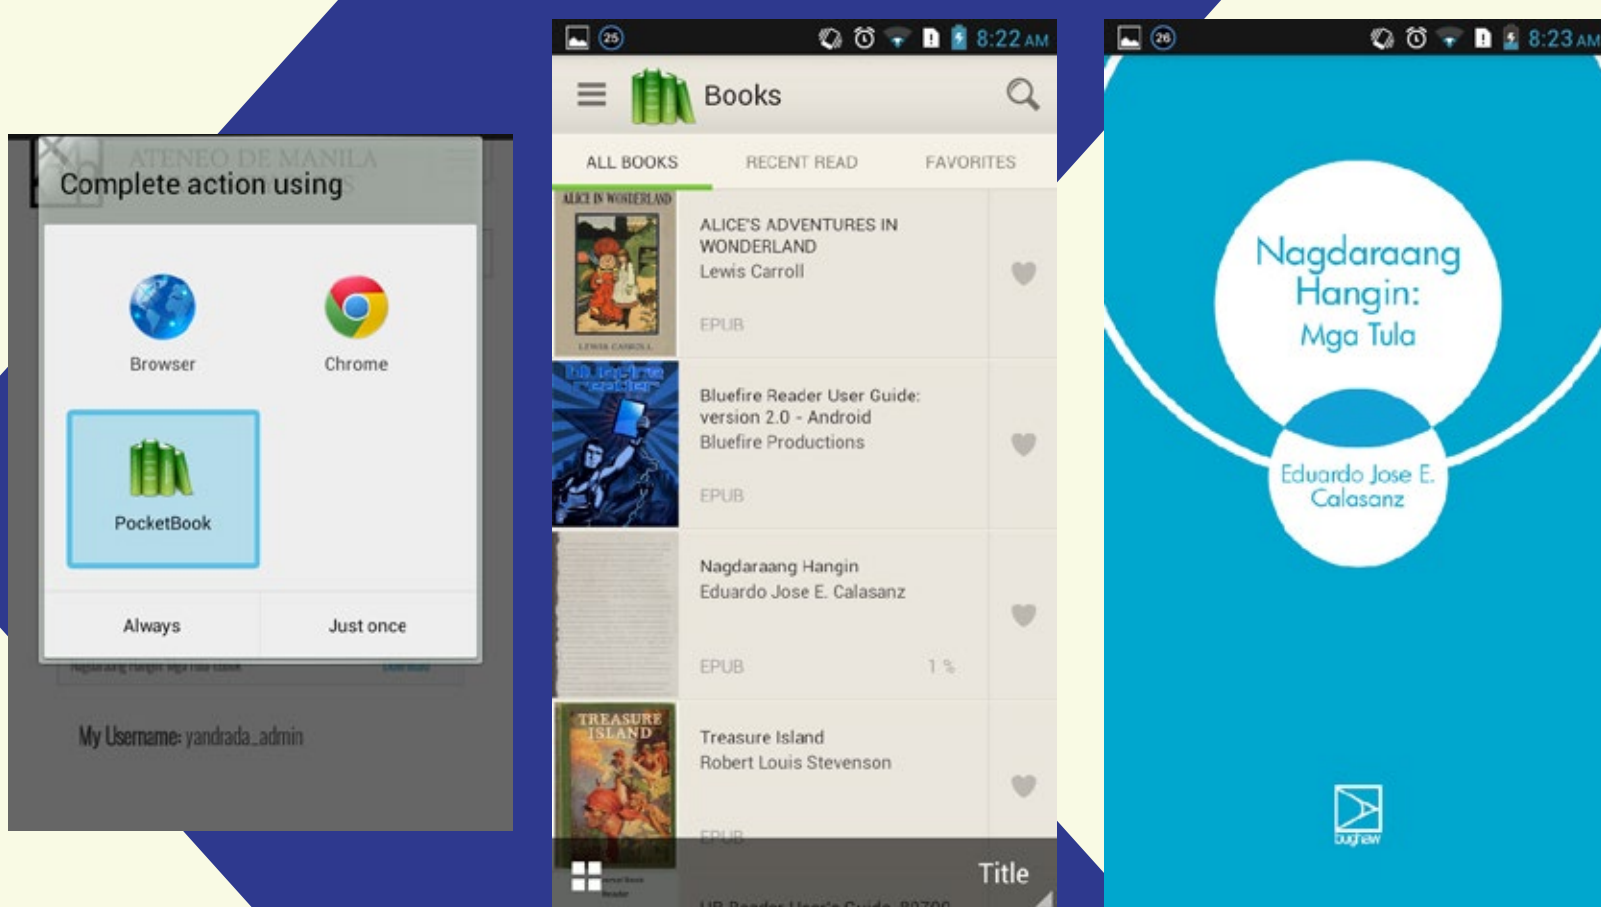

After signing up for an Adobe ID, enter your registered email and password. Click "Ok."

PocketBook will authorize your device.

You can now go to your mobile web browser to download your e-book from the Ateneo University Press website.

2

Download your e-book using the PocketBook app.

The app will open to the Books section, under the Library heading on the menu bar.

Click on your downloaded e-book. Enjoy!
