Christian Message
- The book of Genesis presents to us the story of the Fall of the human race within God’s plan of creation and redemption. (CFC#372)
- In rebelling against God, man and woman destroyed their original harmony with: Alienation from oneself, others, nature and God
- As members of the Church, we are called to conversion. “Conversion” here means not |

E. Conclusion
The students will realize that showing authentic conversion from their sins is shown in their individual act of love for others because God has loved them so much that all they want is to love in return. This act of love should be manifested in their daily lives through their concrete ways (such as mentoring their classmates, helping in the household chores, participating in parish ministry and etc.) And celebrated in the Church through the sacraments especially in the Eucharist and Reconciliation.
only an individual act, but also the whole life-long process of moving toward closer union with Christ our Savior, in His community, the Church, away from sinful ways and habits. (CCC 1430-31)

- We go to Confession in sincere repentance for our sins in thought, word and in deed. We come to the Sacrament of Penance to be converted of Christ.
