HUMAN EXPERIENCE (Before)	HUMAN EXPERIENCE (During)	HUMAN EXPERIENCE (After)
Misconceptions: The students think that the salvific will of God only started in Golgotha culminated by Christ's death on the cross. They also assume that the Kingdom of God is a geographical place and is hard to achieve by human beings.	The students understand how Jesus exemplified the meaning of God's Kingdom through the use of the parables. The students realize that the Kingdom of God is already here in our midst but not yet in its fullness. Therefore the students are called to participate in Jesus' ministry of proclaiming the reign of God in the world. They are asked to cooperate in combating the different social problems that ravage our country as a way of showing the Kingdom of God to our brothers and sisters.	The students will understand the true meaning of the Kingdom of God and how they can cooperate in spreading the salvific love of the Father to others. The students will develop a sense of responsibility and social concern so that, in the long run, they will become useful members of the society and the Church.
