Ateneo College Scholarship Program
School Year 2016-17

Dear Friends of the Ateneo,

For the past 155 years, the Ateneo de Manila University has nurtured young students to become not only excellent leaders in their respective fields but also change agents ready to serve our beloved country. We seek to educate “as many as possible, and of the very best.” For Schoolyear 2015-16, 18.6% of our undergraduate students received scholarships and financial assistance.

And we need your invaluable help to make this a reality, especially for our financially-challenged students. They look to you to provide hope for a bright future, not only for themselves but also for their families.

The attached information will tell you how you can invest in the future of a scholar. May you respond generously, as your gift, truly is the steppingstone for a scholar to achieve his or her dream of an Ateneo education. We hope we can count on you to be our valuable partners in educating Men & Women for Others towards nation building.

Allow me to end with a quote from the late Fr. Thomas B. Steinbugler, S.J., founder of the Ateneo College Scholarship Program some five decades ago: “Although the returns from your contribution may be intangible for the moment, they are certain and permanent legacies for community and posterity. And you can rely on the eternal promise of ‘hundred-fold blessings.’”

Sincerely,

Jumela F. Sarmiento, Ph. D.

TYPES OF DONATIONS

I. Scholarship Endowment

A Scholarship Endowment is set up with the principal donation invested and kept intact and only the yearly income derived from the fund is used to award a scholarship. In cases where the fund is being built through staggered donations, the earnings on the initial sum is added to the capital and no award is made until the desired principal donation is reached.

Tuition support from an Endowment depends on projections of tuition & fees for a given school year and the fund's yearly investment portfolio performance. In the event that the fund does not earn enough to cover the intended tuition & fees for a particular scholar in a given school year, the Loyola Schools covers the shortfall through another fund to preserve the principal amount of donation.

An Endowment grant ensures scholarship assistance to generations of deserving students in the Loyola Schools. The percentage of assistance may vary every four years or so, considering yearly tuition increases and fluctuating interest earnings. All endowment donations are confidentially managed by the University's Office of the Vice President for Finance & Treasurer, through Portfolio Managers and with oversight by the Finance Committee of the Ateneo de Manila University (ADMU) Board of Trustees.

The amount of Endowment depends upon the type of Scholarship to be granted:

- A. A Three Million Five Hundred Thousand Peso (Php 3,500,000) donation will support the full tuition and fees of an Ateneo scholar each year through college.
- B. A Two Million Seven Hundred Thousand Peso (Php 2,700,000) donation will support the full tuition only of an Ateneo scholar each year through college.
- C. A One Million Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Peso (Php 1,750,000) donation will support the half tuition and fees of an Ateneo scholar each year through college.
- D. A One Million Eight Hundred Thousand Peso (Php 1,800,000) donation will support the Ateneo University Dormitory lodging fee only of an Ateneo scholar each year through college.
- E. An Eight Hundred Thousand Peso (Php 800,000) donation will support the allowance for books and transportation or allowance for food/meals of an Ateneo scholar each year through college.

II Scholarship Award

A Scholarship Award is a sponsorship of a scholar for the duration of his/her specific 4-year or 5-year program of study. The amount of Scholarship Award depends upon the type of Scholarship to be granted. A tuition increase of at least 6% should be projected for each succeeding year. (Cost for required Intersession classes, which varies depending on the program of study, is excluded below. It averages at P30,000 per Intersession term.)

A. A one-time donation of Eight Hundred Thousand Pesos (Php 800,000) will cover the full tuition and fees of an Ateneo scholar for four years.

B. A One Hundred and Ninety Thousand Peso (Php 190,000) donation will support the full tuition and fees of an Ateneo scholar for one year. The donation may be made in two installments of Php 95,000 each.

C. A Ninety Five Thousand-Peso (Php 95,000) donation will support the half tuition and fees of an Ateneo scholar for one year. The donation may be made in two installments of Php 47,500 each.

D. A Ninety Thousand Peso (Php 90,000) donation will support the Ateneo dormitory fee (lodging only) of an Ateneo scholar for one year. The donation may be made in two installments of Php 45,000 each.

E. A Forty Thousand Peso (Php 40,000) donation will support the Book, Transportation Allowance and (partial) Food Allowance expenses of an Ateneo scholar for one year. The donation may be made in two installments of Php 20,000 each.

F. Any fixed amount of donation (e.g. P50,000 for the next four years) is much welcome to partly finance any of the Scholarship Awards above and will go a long way in helping talented and deserving students to enjoy an Ateneo college education.

An Endowment or Scholarship Award may be named in honor or memory of an individual, family or an institution. The donor, based on his/her own set of criteria and in accordance with the standards set by the Office of Admission and Aid, may choose his/her particular scholar beneficiary. The donor may be anonymous to the scholar beneficiary.
